Please be aware if the token you are purchasing has deflationary mechanisms such as burn on transfer you may receive less than the amount stated.

Your tokens will be locked in the contract until the presale has concluded.

Safety Alert

This is a decentralised and open presale platform. Similar to Uniswap anyone can create and name a presale freely including fake versions of existing tokens. It is also possible for developers of a token to mint near infinite tokens and dump them on locked liquidity. Please do your own research before using this platform.
